

My Destiny

He's taken my sin
He's taken my shame
He's taken my insecurities
And He's filled my heart with song again

He's given me joy
He's given me peace
He's given me love in my life
And a song in my heart again

This is my destiny
I'm destined to be truly free
This is my destiny
I'm reigning and ruling
Certain and sure
For I'm destined to be truly free

*He's given me freedom
He's given me joy
He's given me peace in my heart
And a life to enjoy*
